PETER VARSICS

Meet Peter, a multi-talented guy who's been rocking the world of branding, storytelling, and filmmaking for over 12 years. Originally from Germany but raised in Hungary, he's made waves internationally, snagging awards left and right for his innovative work. From nabbing nods at Promax and Clio to shooting campaigns for major series, Peter's skills are as diverse as they come. But it's not just about the glitz and glam of the commercial world—his heart lies in storytelling. After breaking into feature filmmaking with 'Perfect As You Are', he's now hustling on his next big projects while still capturing life's moments through his lens in Budapest.

ARIANE JAMES

BUITENBENEN / OUTSIDE LEGS

My legs always take me outside. To enter the theater of reality with me. The adventure of just a moment, a coincidental place, the wonder of every day. Sun on my skin, a thorn in my foot, freezing feet in the ice. The long wavelengths of light are my language; the red part of the spectrum and beyond, wavelengths that the eye largely cannot see. This requires converted cameras and special filters. This helps to conjure up a reality in which ordinary colors no longer exist and thus unravel new stories.

FRANK KELLER

All pictures deal with greenhouses with all their plants, colors, lots of glass, shading, surfaces, structures, transparencies – all the perspectives are just from above - for me this was a completely fascinating project.

IRIS VAN HEUSDEN

I love photographing abandoned houses and buildings. Its decline and history is fascinating. Before they disappear into nothing, I capture them in the most beautiful way.
